

Fast-paced change rewards fast movers

CHARTERED accountants Dowle Horrigan, Cardiff, has continued its expansion.

Dawn Bray has been promoted to partner, and the firm has moved to new and larger premises on Whitchurch Road in the city.

Managing partner Stephen Horrigan says the expansion has been prompted by increasing demand for services.

“Rules and legislation are changing faster than ever, and the businesses which keep abreast of change are the ones which will succeed.”

Bray has worked for Dowle Horrigan for 10 years after qualifying with Ernst & Young in Cardiff.

“We are also making a major investment in technology in the firm at this time because we perceive many opportunities in the market for a firm of our size,” added Mr Horrigan.

GROWTH: Dowle Horrigan partners Dawn Bray and Stephen Horrigan